

Rep. Jones Introduces Executive Accountability Act

February 9, 2009

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 -- Rep. Walter B. Jones, R-North Carolina, has introduced the Executive Accountability Act of 2009 (H.R. 743), legislation that would "prohibit the President or any other executive branch official from knowingly and willfully misleading the Congress or the people of the U.S., for the purpose of gaining support for the use of the Armed Forces of the U.S."

The bill, introduced on Jan. 28, was co-sponsored by Rep. Neil Abercrombie, D-Hawaii. It was referred to the House Judiciary Committee.
